

Voorgedragen kandidaten W.A. van Es-prijs 2018

Lisette Kootker (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)

Mapping migrations. The application of strontium isotopes in Dutch cultural heritage research

Rowin van Lanen (Universiteit Utrecht)

Changing ways: Patterns of connectivity, habitation and persistence in Northwest European lowlands.

Christel Veen (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen)

New artefacts, old traditions. Roman Period statuettes in the Netherlands: representation and ritual use in context.

Yvonne van Amerongen (Universiteit Leiden)

Wild West Frisia. The role of domestic and wild resource exploitation in Bronze Age subsistence.

Janneke van der Stok-Nienhuis (Technische Universiteit Delft)

Artefact biography 2.0; the information value of corroded archaeological bronzes.

Janna Coomans (Universiteit van Amsterdam)

In pursuit of a healthy city. Sanitation and common good in the Late Medieval Low Countries.

Sasja van der Vaart-Verschoof (Universiteit Leiden)

Fragmenting the chieftain. A practice-based study of Early Iron Age Hallstatt C elite burials in the Low Countries.

Marieke van Dinter (Universiteit Utrecht)

Living along the Limes: Landscape and settlement in the Lower Rhine Delta during Roman and Early Medieval times